

Site Engineer

Location: North East England

Reporting to: Senior Contracts Manager

Role:

- To co-ordinate, communicate and execute technical and engineering activities on a variety of contracts with both with internal and external stakeholders. Raising and recording technical queries on each contract.
- Managing technical and regulatory approvals, including adoptions, highway and sewers section agreements.
- Assisting our land team with topographical surveys and technical investigations for inclusion in land appraisals and opportunities.
- To be a pivotal part of the 'winning work' team, in co-ordinating volumetric calculations of tendering opportunities, by reviewing site investigations, remediation strategies and engineering information.
- Assisting with the effective management of CDM-C/Health & Safety responsibilities on all contracts and developments.
- To give support and information at tender handover meetings, too all contracts and surveying staff.
- To identify commercial opportunities, contractual / technical exposures and limit risks in designs.
- To develop relationships with clients, suppliers and subcontractors.

Technical Skills:

- Good analytical and strategically; Knowledge of LSS surveying software and a working knowledge of AutoCAD.

Interpersonal Skills

- The ability to organise, motivate and develop support staff.
- At ease communicating with construction professionals and clients.
- Helpful and co-operative, even in pressure situations.

Experience:

- General civil engineering, roads, sewers, earthworks and remediation. Works sectors include residential, commercial, retail, public realm, sports and play.

Qualifications:

- Full UK drivers licence, CSCS managers card, preferably SMSTS, HNC and or HND.

Remuneration:

- Competitive salary plus company vehicle or car allowance, fuel card & pension scheme.